White Lawn Kimonos 50c.
Very low priced when you consider that the Lawn is of good quality and the sewing neatly done.
They have pretty Black and White Polka Dot Bands 50c.
Long or short Kimonos of a finer quality White Lawn are $1.00. Colored Bands and all Sizes. For a Breakfast Negligee on a Summer Morning either one of these Kimonos is about as inexpensive a garment as you can get.

Silk Striped Dimities 19c. Yard.
When these Dimities were worn early in the season they were intended for the big mercantile house north of us and the retail price would have been at least 30c.
From some misunderstanding with the mill, the store cancelled the order and we bought a lot of them a short time ago low enough to sell at 19c.
All colors, including black and the stripe is genuine silk.

Swivel Silk is Half Silk and Half Cotton 19c. Yard.
The manufacturers held their price pretty high early in the spring. Retail merchants that purchased this fabric sold it for 50c yard.
The cold weather and the enormous variety of wash goods this season caused the price to tumble rapidly and we secured a goodly assortment to sell for 19c. yard. All the leading colors.
There's a pretty window display both of the Silks and the Dimities.

Social and Personal

Mr. J. J. Bell's story, "Wee Macgregor," has been thoroughly appreciated outside of Scotland that Mr. William Tanner, of New South Wales, has dropped into poetry while writing his impressions of the book. These impressions are candidly stated in the following verses:

"What callan's this that gars us smile,
It's jist Macgregor!
What! Him that Johnnie faur the spile?
Oh, ay! Macgregor!
T'ho shair! here's thirteen thair nae! spile!
Aween our door an' Scotia's isle,
Yet lka week, when 'm-ladays' in,
T'ho fairly devioused w' the d'm,
T'ak the 'Harold' frae postie's haum,
Up gets a yell through a' the laun,
I scarce can toddle tae the door
Ere I'm beset by hauf a score
Crying out, 'Macgregor!'

"But, Maister Bell! Whitt's this ye're sayin'
About Macgregor?
Don't pit a stopper on the wean,
T'ho shair! Wee Macgregor!
We're weel enough, an' only young,
We'd miss his pranks an' chattering tongue.

"Wha'll catch us 'parlans', 'dae recites',
An' gie the 'drayon' loud on fricht?
An' 'Grumphy!' 'Lazey! Gran'pa! John!
T'ho Maister Bell tae leave him on.
T'ho's loit out here that like his caper,
Mids' the 'B' an' 'C' Martin, 'the paper,
Whoot Macgregor!'

Graduating Exercises.
The invitations issued by the graduating class of the University College of Medicine for the exercises to take place at the Academy of Music at 8:30 o'clock this evening are in exceedingly good taste and most attractive in design.
Members of the invitation and executive committee are Mr. A. L. Smoot, chairman; Mr. A. A. Weaver, secretary and treasurer; Mr. H. A. Spitzer, Mr. P. N. Kerr and Mr. L. D. Picher. Ushers will include the chief marshal, Mr. G. A. Wright, and Messrs. E. L. Grubb, H. C. Martin, M. S. Martin, J. H. Chiles, M. W. Healy, K. Stehbeck, J. C. Johnson, R. O. Canada and L. H. Pinker.

List Grows Daily.
The list of professional artists who will be represented at the spring exhibit of the Richmond Art Club grows daily.
Miss S. E. Pierson, of Alexandria, Va., will send a water color flower piece, "The Roses."
Miss Clara H. Saunders, of Washington, D. C., a painting of "Red Roses."
Miss Mathilde Muedon, several pastels and water colors of French scenes and flowers.
Miss Clara T. McChesney, of New York, two paintings, "Homeward Bound" and "Helping Mother."
James Symington, of New York, three water colors called "Nina," "Jennie" and "Her Pet."
Mr. Arthur B. Davies, of New York, two pictures in oil, "Autumn Hillside" and "Old Virginia Plantation."
Mr. W. L. Lathrop, of New Hope, Pa., one painting called "Primrose Brook."
Miss Bertha Perrie, of Washington, D. C., a water color miniature under the title of "Dorothy."
Mr. Kenyon Cox, two pictures, "The Fates" and "Allyn."

The Bach Festival.
The Bach festival, which is now going on at Bethlehem, Pa., is attracting extraordinary interest to musicians and music lovers all over the United States. The festival, which lasts for six days, is planned to exemplify in Bach's music prominent events in the life of Christ, and bringing out the force of their religious significance.
Each performance held in the historic Bethlehem Church is paid for by the contribution of trombone players from the church bell, Mr. J. Fred Walte, the organist of the church, is the director of the festival, which draws together great numbers of people from different sections and States. Mr. Albert C. Bruce, of this city, is in Bethlehem at the Bach festival and is enjoying it to the utmost.
The Moravian Church is the same one before which altar Pulaski knelt during the War of the Revolution to receive a banner embroidered for him by the Moravian nuns. The concluding verse of Longfellow's poem is paid for by the contribution of the nuns who are the same ones before which altar Pulaski knelt during the War of the Revolution to receive a banner embroidered for him by the Moravian nuns. Closing German.
The closing German of Misses Kidwell's class for grown people will be danced in the ballroom of the Hotel Jefferson on Saturday night. The class is the last of the season, a large throng will doubtless be present.
The Germans have been unusually popular this season and have proven an attractive feature in the social life of the city.

OBSTINATE MEMBERS
THERE IS ONE
President William M. Turpin, of the Board of Aldermen, sends the following explanatory letter to The Times-Dispatch in regard to a slight error in the report contained in the paper yesterday morning.

You unintentionally misquoted me in your report of the proceedings of the Board of Aldermen last night in today's Times-Dispatch. You made me say that as there were present only fourteen Aldermen, "a single obstinate member could kill every concurrent measure." I said a single member could kill any measure requiring a two-thirds vote, and am sure I did not use the word "obstinate," as that would have been both disrespectful and untrue, there being no "obstinate" members of the Board of Aldermen.

Yours,
WILLIAM M. TURPIN.

HE STAMPS BILLS WITH HIS APPROVAL
Governor Rounds up a Number of Bills—Will Read Night and Day.

Governor Montague returned a number of bills yesterday with his approval, and in consequence the following will be laws after July 1st, unless otherwise provided: An act amending the existing act relating to public printing; an act to authorize T. H. Massey and J. W. Massey to erect a pier in James River off Warwick county; an act to authorize the Auditor of Public Accounts to pay James E. Phillips for the last cause for work done and material furnished for the University of Virginia; an act vesting in the Circuit Court of Albemarle county, or the Judge thereof, the power and jurisdiction of the County Court of Albemarle county, February 1, 1901; an act to amend the charter of Wytheville; an act relating to vestibule fronts on trolley cars, requiring them from November until April 30th; and act providing for the separate assessment of taxes on mineral lands and improvements thereon, and an act preventing the delivery of intoxicating liquors within the limits of the local option districts of Warren and Tazewell counties.

The Governor had up to yesterday caught up with the General Assembly, but he received a large batch of unsigned bills from the enrolling clerks yesterday, and from now until adjournment he will be pushed to the utmost, and will read bills night and day.

Bright's Disease and Diabetes
Are Positively Curable.

Adolph Weeks, the well-known pioneer of 620 Green Street, San Francisco, one of the founders of the California Cracker Company, interviewed December 11, 1901:

Q—Will you permit us to refer to you as one of those cured of diabetes by the Fulton Compound?

A—You may. It ought to be known. I have told a great many about it myself.

Q—You found it hard to convince them?

A—Only those cured can believe easily. You will have great difficulty in making people believe it.

Q—Had physicians diagnosed your case as diabetes?

A—Several. The kidneys were also affected. I had to sleep with my hand under my back to sustain me so I could rest.

Q—How long before you began to improve?

A—I was told slowly—it must have been several weeks.

Q—How long before you were fully restored?

A—Can you recall any day about it?

Q—One was a Mrs. D., a friend of ours in the country. Her trouble was Bright's Disease. She, too, recovered.

Q—Any other?

A—A lady friend in Windsor, Sonoma County, was swollen with dropsy, and I sent her the Bright's Disease Compound, the second dozen cost her $1.00.

Q—What do you think now of the curability of Bright's Disease and Diabetes?

A—I am sure that any man will take these Compounds for a sufficient length of time.

Medical works agree that Bright's Disease and Diabetes are incurable, but 80 per cent. are positively cured by the Fulton Compound. (Common forms of kidney complaint and rheumatism offer but slight resistance.) Price $1 for the Bright's Disease and $1.50 for the Diabetes Compound. John J. RICHMOND WANTS
GRAND SECRETARY
Local Lodge of Elks Will Try to Get the Place for Mr.
Burke.

When the Richmond Lodge of Elks goes to Baltimore in July to attend the meeting of the Grand Lodge of that body they will go with a purpose which if successful, will be of much importance to Richmond.

This lodge, which is one of the most active and prosperous in the country, and which has in its ranks some of the most distinguished and substantial citizens of Richmond, will have as their object the election of Grand Secretary, Mr. T. A. Burke, to the exalted position of Grand Secretary of the Lodge.

This means much for Mr. Burke and Richmond Lodge, and it means much for Richmond, for such an officer representing progressive and intellectual Order like that of the Elks, will of necessity be of national importance. It will bring to this city from time to time prominent members, committees and delegations of the Order, and the investments are made of a suite of offices, giving employment to half a dozen or more clerks and stenographers and it will advertise the city, as hardly any other similar office could.

Order is conceded by members of the Order all over the country to be eminently qualified for the place. His long experience as secretary of Richmond Lodge and his close touch with Grand Lodge, and his knowledge of the Order, have tended to place him in a position to all the office with all its details.

Richmond Lodge hopes to elect Mr. Burke to this large and in order to do so, they will carry a large delegation of enthusiastic with them to the meeting in July.

These meetings are always events in the affairs of the cities in which they are held, and the citizens of Baltimore have long been looking forward to the coming of the visitors a three-days "fete" they have never had before.

Attendance is not confined to members of the Order, but all persons are invited to attend, and Richmond Lodge hopes many citizens who are not members of the Order will go with them to root for Richmond.

COULD NOT ATTEND
Lieutenant-Governor Willard Detained from the Banquet.

Lieutenant-Governor Willard was prevented from attending the legislative banquet at Murphy's last night, owing to the return here of Mrs. Willard and their little daughter. The latter, who has been ill for a long time, is now practically well, and Captain Willard, while regretting his inability to accept the invitation extended him to the banquet, preferred to remain at home with Mrs. Willard and his little girl, who have been absent for some time.

THE CHILD-LABOR LAW
It Met With the Most Hearty Endorsement—Juvenile Courts Are Doing a Great Work—Makes Recommendations.

Mr. George B. Davis, superintendent of Public Charities, has just returned from Atlanta, whither he went as a delegate to the National Conference of Charities and Corrections. At the request of The Times-Dispatch he has written the following as his impressions of the meeting:

Having been appointed a delegate to the National Conference of Charities and Corrections (its thirtieth annual session), which met at Atlanta, Ga., May 6th-12th, I am doing a great deal of thinking about the child labor law and the juvenile courts.

A large force of laborers under the child labor law was heartily endorsed as being highly essential to the general welfare of the children, morally, mentally, physically and spiritually. A child labor bill is now pending in the Georgia Legislature.

PRICE OF DRUNKS
HAS INCREASED
Costs More Now than Ever Before—Story of the Police Court.

Justice John has raised the price of drunks, and in future those who go out to celebrate will have to have a good stock of the funds left to get them out of jail.

Tom Jones was fined $10 yesterday by Justice John for being drunk and disorderly and making himself obnoxious in the Capitol Square, and James Anderson was fined a similar sum for being drunk and disorderly at the Second Station.

Richard Randolph was charged $10 for threatening to kill B. H. Lange. Jack Harris was assessed $10 for being drunk and disorderly in the Chesapeake and Ohio depot.

Eddie Day was placed under bonds for twelve months for being drunk and disorderly.

John Magnuson paid $2.50 for being drunk and disorderly.

Rachael Cousins (colored) was fined $5 for assaulting Sarah Starke with a hatchet, and Sarah was dismissed of the charge of trespassing.

M. Jacobini and M. Darheman were each fined $10 for keeping their confectioneries open on Sunday in the First District.

KING GEORGE FARM
One With $5,000 Dollar Yield Wanted
by Cleveland Man—County Fairs.

Mr. Charles J. Metz, of Lake and Watson Streets, Cleveland, has written to Commissioner of Agriculture Kolner asking about the character of the soil in King George county and the products for which it is best adapted. He writes that he wants a place which, with good management, will yield from four to five thousand dollars of products. He comes to Virginia next week.

Mr. Kolner is very anxious to get a list of all the county and community fairs to be held in the State this year, the date and continuance thereof. He wishes the management of all such fairs to write him at once, giving the desired information.
